

NASF Tournament Insurance

During an NASF sanctioned tournament general liability coverage is provided for the directors, staff, officials, participants and field owners and sponsors as additional insureds. Accident Medical coverage is provided for the team participants, including coaches. Each participating team must be NASF registered and purchase the NASF tournament package.

The policy covers lawsuits brought against your team by certain third parties such as participants and spectators. Protection is provided to the team, league, field owners and sponsors from lawsuits brought for claims of bodily injury or property damage arising from your team's amateur sports activities, including games and tournaments. Teams will receive a certificate of insurance naming field owners and sponsors as additional insureds.
